

Tompkins Financial Corporation Marketing Communications Business Partner

Next Step

Contact the O ce of Student Financial Services. We are dedicated to promoting accessibility through personalized service and integrity and will make every e ort to assist you with nancing the cost of your education.

Student For a-28% restreme & pan kang (n-US)//CD 1/ DC BT7_0000 Sen (ude Bancing al) & ic (e)

graduate@marist.edu (888) 877-7900 marist.edu/graduate

Your Level of Education Matters

invest in your future with a graduate degree

Standards Education: Average Yearly Sate At this the wonderstand that the decision to pursue a graduate education involves an involves and money. A student's commitment to furthering their education involves and involves and siscover that Marist is within reach. The O ce of Student Financial and personal credentials. Average Yearly Sate Stormitted to providing a ordable tuition payment options and assisting students in avigating the graduate education. Story Story Bachelor Studies enhances both their professional and personal credentials. Story Story Story Marine discover that Marist is within reach. The O ce of Student Financial story to endable tuition payment options and assisting students in avigating the graduate education. Story Story Story Story Bachelor Story Marine Story Story Story Story Story Story Story

Take Advantage of Marist's Graduate Scholarships and Tuition Incentives

Institutional Aid

Merit Graduate Scholarships include the Scholars Award and Academic Award. The total scholarship amount ranges from $1,200 - $5,750 for the duration of the program and is applied each semester in the amount of $150 or $250 per course.

Need-Based Grants up to $2,000/term are available to students who demonstrate nancial need and maintain satisfactory academic progress.

Additional Types of Aid

Federal TEACH Grants up to $3,764/year can assist in pursuing graduate education for teacher certi cation programs.

Employer Tuition Reimbursement is an employerprovided benet. In a tuition-assistance program, an employer pays all or part of an employee's cost to attend college. Alumni Tuition Bene ts o er eligible graduates of Marist College their rst graduate course tuition free.

Corporate and Organizational Partnerships o er a 25-50% tuition discount incentive for employees and volunteers at select business and non-pro t organizations.

Outside Scholarships are made available through local communities, online scholarship searches, and the O ce of Student Financial Services website.

Veteran and Military Bene ts include Federal and State Veteran A airs (VA) awards. A 25% tuition discount is also awarded to Veterans, Active Duty personnel and Reservists, their spouse and their adult dependents (at least 22 years old at the time of acceptance).

Set Up an Interest-Free Payment Plan

An interest-free payment plan allows for smaller, more a ordable payments instead of paying your balance in one large lump sum. To enroll in a payment plan visit marist.a ord.com.

Explore Federal Student Loans

After you've researched scholarships and assistantships, you may be able to receive federal nancial aid for your graduate degree through studentaid.gov. You could be eligible for the following:

Federal Direct Loans are loans made directly by the U.S. Department of Education.

Consider a Private Graduate School Loan

Private student loans are a personal alternative to federal direct loans. They are strictly credit-based, have highly competitive interest rates, terms, and conditions. Private student loans o er additional competitive borrower bene ts and high-quality service. To compare private loan options visit elmselect.com.

Direct Graduate PLUS Loans are loans that graduate or professional students can use to help pay for education expenses not covered by other nancial aid.